ADMISSION NOTICE – 2007- 08

Applications are invited for admission to Master in Population Studies (MPS)/ M.Phil in Population Studies course at the Institute for the year 2007-08. The MPS is one-year, fulltime residential course, and students who do well in the course are given the option of continuing the study for six additional months to get M. Phil. in Population Studies. Applications are invited from candidates who have passed M.A./ M.Sc. in Economics, Sociology, Psychology, Geography, Social Work, Anthropology, Population Studies, Public Health, Mathematics or Statistics. Candidates expecting results of qualifying examination by July 2007 may also apply. To be eligible for selection, a candidate should have secured a minimum of 55 % marks (50% in the case of ST or SCs). The upper age limit is 25 years as on 1.8.2007 (relaxed to 30 years for ST or SCs).

The MPS programme of the institute is designed to make students professionals in population related areas with in-depth training in computer applications, data collection and analyses, report writing, group discussion, professional presentation in seminars and conferences. During the last fifty years, the institute had created a nucleus of professionals in India and abroad. It is the only premier institute of its kind in the world exclusively devoted to teaching and research in population related fields.

Currently, the institute offers a total of twenty fellowships of Rs. 2,500/- p.m to the selected candidates. In their allocation, reservation policies of Government of India are strictly followed. A few seats are also available for self-financing candidates (Fees total to Rs 4250/- per annum). Candidates short-listed to appear for the admission test are entitled to sleeper class round trip train fare by the shortest route. The application form and details of fees can be had from the institute's website: www.iipsindia.org. The completed application form should be submitted with a demand draft of Rs. 200/- (exempted for ST and SC candidates) payable to The Director, I.I.P.S. Mumbai along with supporting testimonials.
